

I have had the pleasure of working with Rob on numerous projects over the last 20 years. He is a true craftsman, providing historically correct pieces that are creative and precise. Using only the finest quality materials he has designed and built custom libraries, fireplace surrounds, front entryways and architectural details.

Rob consults with his client on all aspects of the design process, and I would highly recommend him for any millwork, carpentry or detailing project.

Gary Hancock, AIA
Winter Park Design, Inc.

